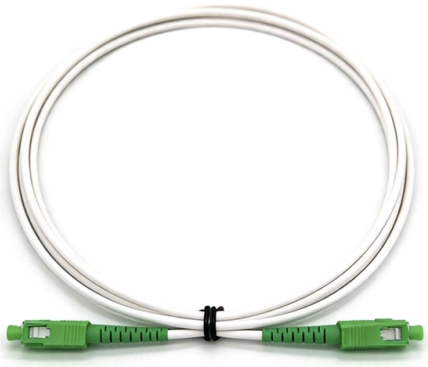
Agent for pigtail jumper wires



Overview

Pigtail Jumper Wires are available at Mouser Electronics. Mouser offers inventory, pricing, & datasheets for Pigtail Jumper Wires.

Key Takeaways

You can source pigtail jumper wires from distributors like Mouser, DigiKey, Siemon, or wholesale agents on Global Sources.

Electronics Distributors

Mouser Electronics offers a wide range of pigtail jumper wires suitable for prototyping and electronics projects. You can view inventory, pricing, and datasheets directly on their website, making it easy to select wires by length, gauge, and connector type (e.g., MINI-FIT JR.),.

Digi

Key provides pre-crimped jumper wires with various lengths (2”–18”) and wire gauges (8 AWG–32 AWG). They offer multiple color options and same-day shipping, making them convenient for both small and large orders.

Fiber Optic Pigtails

Siemon specializes in high-performance fiber optic pigtails and jumpers. Their products include factory-tested jumpers, pigtails, and trunk assemblies for high-speed network applications. They also provide enclosures, adapter plates, and splice components for complete fiber solutions.

Wholesale Agents and Manufacturers

Global Sources lists verified wholesale suppliers, manufacturers, and agents for jumper wires, including pigtail types. Buyers can find OEM, ODM, and OBM manufacturers, review product categories, minimum order quantities, and company profiles. This platform is ideal for bulk purchases or establishing long-term supplier relationships.

Tips for Selecting an AgentDetermine your wire type: Decide between standard electrical jumper wires, pre-crimped leads, or fiber optic pigtails. Check specifications: Consider wire gauge, length, connector type, and voltage rating. Compare suppliers: Evaluate distributors for stock availability, shipping options, and pricing.

Consider bulk sourcing: For large quantities, wholesale platforms like Global Sources can provide better pricing and direct manufacturer access. By using these sources, you can efficiently find a reliable agent or supplier for pigtail jumper wires tailored to your project or production needs.
