Overview

Source over 12 cable trays for sale from manufacturers with factory direct prices, high quality & fast shipping.

Key Takeaways

Factory direct cable trays are available in various materials and configurations, offering customizable solutions for industrial, commercial, and infrastructure projects.

Overview of Factory Direct Cable Tray Suppliers

Factory direct cable trays allow buyers to purchase directly from manufacturers, ensuring competitive pricing, bulk availability, and customization options. These trays are designed to support and organize electrical, data, and communication cables efficiently, with easy access for maintenance and future expansion.

Key Features

Materials: Stainless steel, galvanized steel, aluminum, carbon steel, and fiberglass-reinforced plastic (FRP/GRP) for corrosion resistance and durability. Types: Ladder trays, perforated trays, wire mesh trays, solid bottom trays, and channel trays to suit different load and ventilation requirements. Customization: Widths from 50mm to 1000mm, side rail heights from 50mm to 300mm, lengths, thickness, and surface treatments can be tailored to project needs.

Certifications: ISO9001, CE, and other quality and safety certifications ensure compliance with international standards. Installation: Modular and open-top designs allow quick installation, easy cable access, and future network expansion.
