Key Takeaways

Palau mesh cable trays typically range from $2 to $25 per meter, depending on material, size, coating, and order quantity.

Price Range and Factors

The cost of mesh cable trays from manufacturers like those listed for Palau products depends on several factors: Material: Galvanized steel is common and cost-effective, stainless steel is more expensive but corrosion-resistant, and aluminum is lightweight but pricier than steel. Tray Type: Wire mesh trays are generally cheaper than ladder or perforated trays, suitable for lightweight cabling. Coating and Finish: Hot-dip galvanizing (HDG) and powder coating increase durability and cost, while pre-galvanized trays are cheaper but less durable in corrosive environments.

Size and Dimensions: Wider or deeper trays for heavy-duty applications cost more. Order Quantity: Bulk orders reduce per-meter cost significantly, especially for industrial projects. Additional Costs: Shipping, installation, and labor can add to the total project cost.

Typical Market Pricing
B2B Bulk Orders: Prices can range from $0.80 to over $76 per meter, depending on specifications and volume. Retail or Small Orders: For smaller quantities, prices are generally $15 to $34 per meter.

Wire Mesh Trays: Often on the lower end of the spectrum, making them cost-effective for lightweight cabling.
