Huijue frame-type fiber optic distribution frame

Overview

Huijue 96-core Small Square Fiber Optic Distribution FrameDesigned by Fenxi Optoelectronics Technology, this distribution frame integrates fiber terminatio.

Key Takeaways

Huijue offers a range of Fiber Optic Distribution Frames (ODFs) from 12-core to 576-core, designed for flexible optical network management and distribution.

Overview

Huijue Fiber Optic Distribution Frames (ODFs) are used to organize, distribute, and protect optical fiber cables in communication networks. They support connection, distribution, and dispatch of optical fiber lines while enabling resource management, routing, and protective splicing. These frames are suitable for FTTH, metropolitan broadband, and large-scale backbone networks.

Models and Core Capacities12-core OD

F: Metal distribution box, welding and separation structure, suitable for residential or small-scale FTTH projects. 96-core ODF: Designed for medium-scale network distribution, supports multiple fiber connections and routing management. 576-core ODF: Large-capacity frame for backbone networks, ideal for data centers and high-density optical networks.

Materials and Construction

Huijue OD

Fs are made from metal, SMC, or plastic, depending on the model and application. Metal frames are commonly used for durability and outdoor installation, while SMC and plastic options provide lightweight and corrosion-resistant solutions.

Installation and Applications

Installation methods: Wall-mounted, pole-mounted, or overhead installation. Applications: Residential corridors, FTTH home projects, urban core data centers, and remote broadband access networks. Outdoor protection: Some models are designed to meet IP65/IP66 standards for environmental protection.

Functional Features

Splicing and termination: Supports fiber welding and wiring. Routing management: Enables organized distribution and scheduling of optical signals. Scalability: Models range from small 12-core boxes to large 576-core frames, allowing network expansion.

Compatibility: Works with Huijue optical distribution boxes, joint closures, and cross-connect cabinets for complete ODN solutions.

Summary

Huijue OD

Fs provide flexible, scalable, and durable solutions for optical fiber network distribution. Their range of core capacities, material options, and installation methods make them suitable for residential, metropolitan, and large-scale backbone networks, ensuring efficient fiber management and protection.
