Materials and Durability

Cable trays are manufactured using galvanized steel, stainless steel, aluminum, fiberglass, and PVC, ensuring resistance to corrosion, mechanical stress, and adverse climatic conditions. Perforated trays enhance airflow, preventing overheating and extending cable lifespan. Ladder trays and raceways are designed for robust industrial use, including electrical, construction, and automotive sectors.

Specifications and Customization

Sizes and Dimensions: Trays are available in various widths, lengths, and heights, with customization options for specific project requirements. Load Capacity: Designed to withstand heavy cable loads, with structural integrity verified through quality testing. Installation: Easy to mount, attach, or integrate into existing systems, with modular designs for flexibility.

Ventilation and Safety: Perforated designs improve airflow, reduce heat buildup, and enhance safety by preventing cable damage.

Pricing

While exact prices vary based on material, size, and customization, suppliers in Madagascar offer competitive market rates. Bulk orders or customized solutions may influence pricing, and contacting suppliers directly is recommended for precise quotations.
