Saudi Arabia Photovoltaic combiner box manufacturer

Overview

PV Combiner Box Manufacturers & Manufacturer for the Saudi Arabia. Our manufacturing processes align with the Saudi Standards, Metrology and Quality Orga.

Key Takeaways

Key PV combiner box manufacturers in Saudi Arabia include SunBox Group, Adeco Solar, CEPCO, Sun Capture, and Longmax Technology, offering solutions for residential, commercial, and utility-scale solar projects. Leading ManufacturersSunBox Group specializes in solar energy solutions, including solar panels and batteries, and provides systems suitable for combiner box applications. They focus on enhancing clean energy access and have implemented solar systems for essential services like desalination plants and healthcare facilities.

Adeco Solar offers integrated solar solutions, including project engineering, material supply, and installation. They are recognized as an approved solar contractor by the Saudi Electricity Company and provide solutions for solar street lighting, residential energy, and water pumping.

CEPC

O and Cepco Renewables manufacture customized PV systems and combiner boxes, emphasizing high efficiency, durability, and financial optimization for clients. They have successfully installed large-scale solar projects across Saudi Arabia. Sun Capture provides commercial solar energy solutions, including on-grid, off-grid, and hybrid systems.

Their combiner boxes are designed to enhance return on investment and align with Saudi Arabia's Vision 2030 renewable energy goals. Longmax Technology has delivered thousands of PV combiner boxes for major projects, such as the PIF IV-Haden 2GW Solar Project. Their products are designed to withstand extreme desert conditions, including high temperatures and sandstorms, ensuring reliability and high energy yield.

Product Features and StandardsPV combiner boxes typically include DC molded case circuit breakers, string fuses, surge protection devices, disconnect switches, busbars, and enclosures. High-quality boxes are designed with IP65-rated enclosures to resist dust, water, and UV exposure, and may include monitoring devices for system performance management. Manufacturers often comply with IEC standards and provide solutions suitable for both low and medium voltage applications.

Market Considerations

Saudi Arabia's solar market is growing rapidly under Vision 2030, with increasing investments in utility-scale and commercial solar projects. Local manufacturers face competition from international suppliers, making innovation, cost-effectiveness, and environmental durability key differentiators. Companies like Longmax and CEPCO have demonstrated expertise in large-scale deployments, while smaller firms like SunBox and Adeco Solar focus on integrated solutions for residential and commercial applications.

Conclusion

For sourcing PV combiner boxes in Saudi Arabia, SunBox Group, Adeco Solar, CEPCO, Sun Capture, and Longmax Technology are among the most prominent manufacturers. They offer a range of products suitable for different scales of solar projects, with features designed for reliability, monitoring, and compliance with local and international standards.
